Message from President Jack Pyziakos

What a whirlwind life gives us, Christmas is almost upon us, so the uplift of pace towards this time of the year has already begun. The continual planning for events into next year is hotting up. Barry Donaldson has commenced the planning for the Interplast Golf Day to be held on Friday 5th April 2019 at Woodlands Golf Club. All is ready for sending to sponsors and players - just signing off letters. The Gnome and Fairy Festival planning, managed by Jack Cooper and Glenyse Cooper is well under way. MUNA sponsorship is going to the board on Monday, so our intent is to be involved but we are seeking commitment from a school who has previously participated.

The Rotary District 9810 Annual General Meeting is being held on Friday, 23rd November at Mulgrave Country Club, Wellington Road, Mulgrave at 8pm. Voting on a ballot will be conducted to select a Rotary International District 9810 Representative and Alternate for the Committee to Select the next Rotary Zone 8 Director.

Don't forget to book for the Multi District Conference and the Peace Conference coming up at the beginning of the year.

Rotary Health Perinatal Depression and Anxiety Awareness Week (November 11-17) is about encouraging parents to seek help early if they are not coping, rather than waiting until 'crisis-point'. Australian Rotary Health PhD Scholarship recipient, Siobhan Loughnan is one of the researchers looking for ways to help mothers cope better with parenthood, working on the online 'MUMentum' program, which teaches them practical skills to manage low mood and worry.

David Brunt would like some donations for men's socks and jocks for Christmas for the homeless, and remember the Parkdale SC mock interviews, the lunch for people who live alone and the Salvation Army BBQ lunch coming up.

The Bunnings sausage sizzle on Friday had a slow start due to the equipment needing to be set up and cleaned, so our morning trade was disrupted. But with Di's determination and Ernie's grit we soon got going. The interesting event of the day was the amount of people passing by who informed us of the way the onion had to be placed on the bread first. Keith Carpenter would have been pleased, as that was how he liked it to be done. A big thank you to Trish Gibson, Don Quayle, Gabrielle, Di, Ernie and David for their help on the day. A special thanks to Di for the Italian pumice stone that she carried all around the world so that it would enhance the cleaning process of the BBQ. Takings for the day were $867.

We are now off to the Zoo for Kathy's Bupa social club family day to feed the masses there.

Director and Member Announcements

Secretary Carol Quayle advised two letters were received: from Retina Australia and Ray Scott, writer offering to talk to the club about writing books.

David Brunt reminded us to note ** 2 Important Dates** when club meetings will not be held at Woodlands:

- 27 November – is a combined meeting with RC Chelsea at the Longbeach RSL, Chelsea
- 4 December – is at the Buckingham Hotel, Nepean Highway, Highett.

Kathy Thompson said we have a good guest speaker for the night at the Buckingham Hotel – speaking about children born with Glaucoma.

David advised Tuesday 27 November is also the Salvation Army BBQ – please let David know if you can be a volunteer cook. Monday 3 December is the Christmas Lunch for People Who Live Alone – please let David know if you can drive guests to the lunch. Other community matters: the grant has come through for the Mordialloc Neighbourhood House; tree planting is on hold as Council won't consider it until the 'Marine Trail' work is finished; SIDS Walk to Remember has been postponed until 2019.

Trina Williams asked for volunteer interviewers for mock interviews at Parkdale Secondary College on Wednesday 21 November (8.50 to 12.30).

Trina and Glenyse are putting together an order for club shirts to wear at the Gnome and Fairy Festival and other events. Please let Trina know if you would like to order one.

Kathy Thompson spoke about the membership meeting she and Jack recently attended. A good suggestion was to look at club projects and what skills we need, then target our membership drive to finding those skills.

Jack Cooper reported that organisation for the Gnome and Fairy festival is progressing well.

Paul Taranto will organise the big raffle for the club Christmas function on 18 December. Donations would be appreciated.

Jack Cooper reminded all about the Multi-District Conference in February – register and pay online at: www.rotaryconference.org.au. Kathy reminded all about the Peace Forum on the Friday 15th, for which there is a separate booking, cost $75; and the dinner on the Saturday 16th, separate booking, cost $110 (limited places available).

Jack Pyziakos, together with other members attended the spreading of Keith Carpenter's ashes on 10 November and Graeme Bruce spoke as a tribute to his memory.

Jack reminded all about 2 extra Bunnings BBQs on 10 & 12 December.

Jenny Pudney had completed the 'homework' challenge set by Kathy to read about membership and grants and giving. Jenny's feedback was the suggestion that if a club member was away, a stand-in could attend, thus ensuring regular numbers and broadening membership.

Sergeant-at-Arms

Sergeant for the night was David Brunt. David fined all wearing a coat; and all without a coat. Also those without a tie and those with a tie; those wearing a Rotary lapel and those without a name badge. Other fines were for those who had never attended a rugby league match, and for Australia coming close to winning a cricket match. David asked that we remember those victims of the attack in the City the previous Friday.

Cross the floor fines were $1 delights from the Tarantos for a terrific trip and happy homecoming; and from Trina for being given a discount for being a Rotarian by the Renmark Hotel on a recent trip to SA. Paul also told us that there about a fantastic new Rotary sign at Tullamarine Airport (shown over the page):
